

Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)

Prism Behavioral Consulting is seeking a Board Certified Behavior Analyst to help grow our small team. We provide ABA services within Seattle and throughout the greater Seattle area, but are looking for a BCBA to specifically provide services on the Eastside (Redmond, Bellevue, Mercer Island, Newcastle, Snoqualmie, Maple Valley). You may be a good fit for our team if you:

- Value close collaboration with families and other service providers to create highly individualized treatment plans
- Have compassion and respect for clients' individuality
- Are looking to join a close-knit, supportive team with the purpose of making positive change in the lives of kids and their families!

Job Responsibilities:

- Conduct assessments and create behavior treatment plans
- Provide regular supervision and training to our team of Behavior Technicians
- Collaborate with families to identify treatment goals and provide parent training
- Organize and attend meetings between service providers and clients
- Work closely with the owner to further improve and develop the Prism team

Job Requirements:

- BCBA/LBA certification with at least 1 year of experience as a BCBA
- Experience with a variety of age groups and ability levels
- Strong interpersonal and organizational skills
- Ability to work with clients from a diverse range of cultural backgrounds
- Conduct self in a professional manner abiding by BACB code of ethics
- Strong communication skills and collaborative spirit

We offer health benefits to all of our employees. Small caseloads!

To Apply: Send your resume and cover letter to Francesca.Crispo@prismbehavioralconsulting.com. Please include a cover letter stating your experience and why you'd like to work for a small agency.
